U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The offender was released from custody on April 20, 2011, at which time his term of supervised release commenced with our office. It should be noted that the offender is also being supervised by New Jersey State Parole.

Mr. Cercet resides with family friends in Gloucester Township, New Jersey. He is presently unemployed. The offender missed three reporting dates. Mr. Cercet was advised that further violation(s) may result in revocation of his term of supervised release. The offender is scheduled to commence an in-house Life Skills program be conducted by the Rutgers School of Social Work.

Notwithstanding, as a condition of supervised release, the offender is ordered to pay a special assessment and a fine over his term of supervised release. Mr. Cercet has been unable to make special assessment and fine payments due to his economic circumstances. We ask that the Court to permit the offender to make monthly payments of no less than $10.00 until his financial situation improves.

Respectfully submitted,

WILFREDO TORRES, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer

John L. Paccione
U.S. Probation Officer
